

Speaker Ed Foley, Executive Director Enterprise Project Management

Ed Foley, MPA

Ed Foley began his career in the private sector doing marketing and strategy work with such well-known brands as Hallmark, H&R Block and American Family Insurance. He then transitioned into the Public Higher Education sector leading student recruitment efforts targeted at non-traditional students for the University of Kansas Edwards Campus where he received his Master's in Public Administration (MPA). Ed transitioned into local government with the City of Olathe leading their performance management, strategic planning, and research efforts. He is now thrilled to be working once again in Higher Education for Metropolitan Community College (MCC) – Kansas City as Executive Director of Enterprise Project Management, Planning, and Institutional Effectiveness. Ed's primary responsibilities are guiding MCC's strategic planning and continuous improvement efforts. Ed lives near Kansas City in a rural setting with his wife, 17 year old son and golden doodle dog. He enjoys spending time outdoors on his 184 year old family farm in Northwest Missouri as well as exercising.
